FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

14. On information and belief, on dates better known to Defendant Equifax, Equifax prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information, regarding Plaintiff's Bethpage credit card.

15. Plaintiff notified Equifax that he disputed the accuracy of the information Equifax was reporting in regards to this account with a dispute letter mailed on or around November 5, 2017 specifically stating in a letter that the reporting of the account was inaccurate due to it being paid in full and having a zero balance.

16. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by Equifax, Bethpage failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account.

17. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the disputed account, Equifax did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

18. On information and belief, on dates better known to Defendant Experian, Experian prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information, regarding Plaintiff's Bethpage credit card.

19. Plaintiff notified Experian that he disputed the accuracy of the information Experian was reporting in regards to this account with a dispute letter mailed on or around November 5, 2017 specifically stating in a letter that the reporting of the account was inaccurate due to it being paid in full and having a zero balance.

20. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by Experian, Bethpage failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account.

21. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the disputed account, Experian did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Equifax)

22. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

23. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.,

24. Equifax violated 15 U.S.C. § 1601(e) by failing to establish or to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the preparation of the credit report and credit files that Equifax maintained concerning the Plaintiff.

25. Equifax has willfully and recklessly failed to comply with the Act. The failure of Equifax to comply with the Act include but are not necessarily limited to the following:

- a) The failure to follow reasonable procedures to assure the maximum possible accuracy of the information reported;

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Mohammed Tipoo, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Experian Information Solutions, Inc. for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Bethpage.)

50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

51. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.,

52. Pursuant to the Act, all person who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.

53. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.

54. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as Bethpage must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.

55. The Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s by the publishing of the Account Liability Representation; by failing to fully and improperly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff with respect to the Account Liability Representation; by failing to review all relevant information regarding same by failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to the credit reporting agencies.

56. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendant Bethpage, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

57. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant Bethpage was willful, rendering Bethpage liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n).

58. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Bethpage in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Mohammed Tipoo, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Bethpage, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligent Violation of the FCRA as to Bethpage)

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

60. This is an action for negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.,

61. Pursuant to the Act, all person who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.

62. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.

63. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as Bethpage must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.

64. After receiving the Dispute Notice from Equifax and Experian, Bethpage negligently failed to conduct its reinvestigation in good faith.

65. A reasonable investigation would require a furnisher such as Bethpage to consider and evaluate a specific dispute by the consumer, along with all other facts, evidence and materials provided by the agency to the furnisher.

66. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant Bethpage was negligent, entitling the Plaintiff to recover actual damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

67. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of Bethpage, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

68. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Bethpage in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n) and 1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Mohammed Tipoo, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Bethpage, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

69. Plaintiff demands and hereby respectfully requests a trial by jury for all claims and issues this complaint to which Plaintiff is or may be entitled to a jury trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment from the each Defendant as follows:

- a) For actual damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a) be awarded for each negligent violation as alleged herein;
